DEDICATION

We, the students of the class of 1968, proudly dedicate our yearbook to a man who is totally involved in every aspect of Canton High School life. His achievements both as an inspiring teacher and as a dedicated Vice Principal are matched only by his devotion to the students and their interests. He is able to maintain an informal relationship with the students while retaining their respect. Therefore, with great pleasure we dedicate the 1968 "Echo" to MR. RALPH CLOUGH.

PRINCIPAL CANTON HIGH SCHOOL

Our life at Canton High School is now a memory for the class of 1968. Yet this memory is filled with many great moments; moments which were initiated by the school's administration for us. We thank you ever so much, Mr. Robert J. O'Donnell, for making our four years in high school an unforgettable segment of our lives.

SENIOR

A tower of milk cartons, co-ed cheerleaders and beans to Mr. Clough! This was our Senior Breakfast. We started off with the boys drowning out the girls in a chorus of Yellow Submarine. (And I might add that all the ham in the cafeteria wasn't on the plates!) It all ended with a crash as the cheerleaders and the stuffed boys collapsed in a heap from a pyramid. They didn't collapse that afternoon, though, as the spirit started in the morning carried over into the game.

BREAKFAST

The team needed little time to get fired up for a tough Falmouth team. Canton handed Falmouth its only defeat of the season with a strong 28-13 win. For the Bulldogs and fans, the whole day was a true success.

A small New England town is greatly alarmed over three consecutive murders which have taken place there. "It's always a girl," notes the sheriff, "one with a physical affliction of some kind." First, there was the poor dumb girl thrown in the well, then the blind girl by the library, and now a defenseless cripple."

Considerable concern is felt now for Helen, a mute girl, who is employed in the house of Professor Warren and others who are suspects. After investigation however, the sheriff concludes that there are no grounds for suspicion. It can be noted, though, that some strange alibies are being presented.

Doctor Parry, therefore, decides to accompany Helen to Boston the next day to consult a specialist. That night, though, Stephen Rice, the Professor's assistant, is fired, Mrs. Oates, the maid, is sent into town for medicine and Nurse Barker quits. Helen, terrified at being alone with Mrs. Warren, tries to telephone for help. Unable to, she is suddenly confronted with the Professor who explains, while preparing to strangle her, the need to dispose of "imperfect girls". He is shot, though, by the invalid Mrs. Warren. As she tells of her years of suspicion, she also dies.

Helen, regaining her voice because of these shocks, is finally able to assure the returning Doctor Parry that she is "all right".

OFFICERS STUDENT COUNCIL

Advisor: Mr. Callanan, President: Christopher Pinkham, Vice-President: Laurene Tangvik, Treasurer: David Swardlick, Secretary: Nancy Zaniboni.

Spirit, pride, scholarships, and enjoyment. These are the goals of Student Council. We began the year by conducting the Officer Induction Ceremony, sponsoring a successful Battle of the Bands, and supplying our football games with programs and a scoreboard. Since then we've sold Canton High jackets, Bull Dog buttons, and sponsored a Red Cross Book and Record Drive. We attended a convention at Lincoln Sudbury Regional High and will be attending another one soon. We're also planning several activities in the future.

The National Honor Society has established the qualities of scholarship, leadership character and service at Canton High. The group of 1967-1968 hopes this tradition will continue if not magnify at Canton High.

MATH CLUB

SENIOR MEMBERS: L. Ramonas, S. Coady, R. Gianetta, D. Woodbury. Seated: Coach, Mr. Badoian.

Upon entering formal competition in 1965, the math team has enjoyed continuing success. By placing third in a field of 55 towns the team, in its first year, established itself as a formidable contender. 1966 and 1967 were to witness two Greater Boston Math League championships, and the overall championship of Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. While the outlook for 1968 seems hopeful, another league championship is not a certainty. But whatever the outcome, three factors, to which all past success must be attributed, will remain; a spirit of inter-team cooperation, a willingness to work, and the unsurpassed teaching of Mr. Badoian.

Students Select "Spiral Staircase" Excellent Drama

by Kenny Stevenson

by Virginia Connolly

On Friday night, December 8th, the Senior Class presented its annual play under the capable direction of Mr. Morrison. This year Mr. Morrison, who has presented such plays as "The Diary of Anne Frank," "The Skin of Our Teeth," and "Sabrina," chose to present "The Spiral Staircase." This is a suspense filled thriller, the first murder mystery he has presented.

As the play opens three girls have already been murdered and the sheriff (Tom Donaghy) fears that Helen, a mute girl, is the murderer's next victim. Helen (the German) resides in the house of professor Warren (Peter Brindley) along with his step-mother, Mrs. Warren (Janice Indorato), his assistant, Stephen (Charles Bilikar), his house keeper, Mrs. Oates (Shirley Sweetney) and Nurse Barker (Jackie Bradley). Every one is concerned for Helen's welfare, especially Mr. Warren, James (Leith), who promises to take her to a specialist in Boston the next day.

Teachers Speak Out Students are 'Best'

by Marilyn Oles

When new teachers come to the school, students usually form an opinion of them. "She's a grouch" - "He's easy" - "He's great!"

Now the tables are turned and it's their turn to say something about CHS. Itself and the students.

Since there are sixteen new teachers, I would be quite difficult to quote them all without starting a new paper. So a few were selected.

"They're only concerned about their marks, not about learning as they should be," says one of the new CHS intellects Mr. St. Jean.

He also has a parrot dislike for some of his underclass students (attention sophomores) general he just "likes the kid."

In Mrs. Perez's opinion, "The students are very well behaved and are no problem, but I wish they'd study more." She also thinks that the school is nice, too.

Now going into the depths of the new wing, we found Mr. Kerivan. "CHS has a good administration compared with other schools." He also says, "There is no major conflict between students and teachers."

The only aspect of the school he dislikes is the lunches. "We better try Krations."

Mrs. Perez also criticized the lunches, stating, "You'll never get fat with the little they give."

Last of all is Mr. Mullen, another English teacher.

"The readiness of both people and things in CHS, and the school atmosphere, will be a vital part of this education

Senior Activities Look Good

by Lisa Nowell

The Senior class is in the process of planning many activities; some are new ideas, and some are projects continued from last year. So far the seniors have had two class meetings. One was last June and one in the middle of September.

On September 23, the first Senior activity, the football breakfast, was held. It was a tremendous success. Mr. Morrison, the Senior class advisor, said about it, "It was a success from two aspects. Not only was there a higher percentage of attendance than ever before, but the school spirit there was spontaneous!"

The seniors hope to have a graduation breakfast at the end of the year.

A project that was started by the class of 1967, a scholarship fund for the class graduating a year after them, will be continued this year. Also, preparations for another basketball game between the Harmon and the Canton team are being made.

The date for the next meeting is indefinite. This one will be conducted by class officers.

Mr. Morrison seems to have a lot of confidence in the class officers. "We could not of our responsibility toward the other three classes and school as a whole. It is going to be a great year!"

BOYS

What are little boys made of?
Snips and snails,
And puppy-dogs' tails;
That's what little boys are made of.

GIRLS

What are little girls
made of?
Sugar and spice,
And everything nice;
That's what little girls are made of.
